DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
CHARLESTON DIVISION

United States of America,	)
	)	Criminal No. 2:15-472-RMG
vs.	)
Dylann Storm Roof,	)	ORDER

To ensure that the trial and related proceedings in this matter are conducted in an orderly manner conducive to a fair adjudication, it is ORDERED that:

Jury Selection Procedures for the Week of September 26, 2016

1. Beginning on September 26, 2016, prospective jurors will report to the Federal Courthouse in panels for the completion of Supplemental Case Questionnaires. (See Dkt. No. 254). In Courtroom 6, each panel will be sworn, introduced to the parties and the Court, and receive preliminary instructions from the Court. (Id.). The Court will determine whether to excuse jurors for specified reasons related to undue hardship or extreme inconvenience. Unexcused jurors will move to a different location for the completion of Supplemental Case Questionnaires. (Id.).
2. Because the number of jurors for each session is equal to the courtroom's seating capacity, no public seating will be available in Courtroom 6. However, overflow seating will be available for the general public in Courtroom 4. A live audio and video feed from the proceedings will be provided. Unless otherwise ordered, seating in the overflow courtroom is on a first-come, first-serve basis. There will not be a designated media room for these proceedings.

3. During the week of September 26, 2016, the courthouse will open at 7:30 A.M., and Courtroom 4 (the overflow courtroom) will open at 8:00 A.M.
4. No cameras or video or audio recording devices of any kind, including cell phones or multi-media enabled smart phones, cameras, laptop computers, tablets, video cameras, or any devices with similar functionality are permitted in the courthouse during these proceedings except as provided in the Court's Standing Order regarding the use of electronic devices in courtroom facilities, available at <http://www.scd.uscourts.gov/Court/OrderReElecDevices.pdf>.<sup>1</sup>

Trial

5. Trial of this matter will be held in Courtroom 6 of the Charleston Federal Courthouse located at 85 Broad Street, Charleston, South Carolina, with individual juror voir dire to commence on November 7, 2016, at 9:00 A.M.<sup>2</sup> During trial, there will generally be a short mid-morning break, a one-hour lunch break and a short mid-afternoon break. The schedule is subject to change as conditions warrant, and scheduling updates will be posted on the Court's website.

<sup>1</sup> Under the Court's Standing Order regarding the use of electronic devices, court staff (including contract court reports), attorneys on court business, and support staff members accompanying authorized attorneys are exempt from this requirement.

<sup>2</sup> The Court's July 18, 2016 Order establishing jury selection procedures (Dkt. No. 254) states that the first jury panel will be directed to report to the Federal Courthouse at 8:30 A.M. on November 7, 2016. This second sentence of Paragraph 21 of Dkt. No. 254 is amended to state that, "The first panel will be directed to report to the Federal Courthouse in Charleston, South Carolina at 9:00 A.M. on November 7, 2016, and the second panel will be directed to report to the Federal Courthouse in Charleston, South Carolina at 1:00 P.M. on November 7, 2016."

6. The courthouse will open 1.5 hours prior to the start of scheduled proceedings each day. In order to enter the courthouse, all individuals must present valid government-issued photo identification, such as a driver's license or passport.
7. Members of the media must register and receive court-issued credentials in order to bring electronic equipment into the courthouse, to gain admission to the media overflow room, or to conduct interviews in a court-approved interview area outside the courthouse. Credentialed media representatives must wear a court-issued photo ID badge at all times while inside the courthouse, immediately outside any courthouse entrance, or in the designated interview area. Information on how to register for media credentials, and where to pick up a media badge, will be available on the District of South Carolina website (<http://www.scd.uscourts.gov/cases/2-15-472.asp>). Reporters are strongly encouraged to register online by October 31, if they wish to obtain their badges before the scheduled start of jury selection (November 7).
8. No cameras or video or audio recording devices of any kind, including cell phones or multi-media enabled smart phones, cameras, laptop computers, tablets, video cameras, or any devices with similar functionality are permitted in the courthouse at any time except as provided in this Order, or in the Court's Standing Order regarding the use of electronic devices in courtroom facilities, available at <http://www.scd.uscourts.gov/Court/OrderReElecDevices.pdf>. Credentialed members of the media may bring such electronics into the courthouse, but members of the media may only use such devices in the Media

Room in accordance with this Order.<sup>3</sup> Members of the media may not bring such devices into the trial courtroom and may not use such devices outside of the Media Room.

9. No person shall take any photograph, make any recording, or make any broadcast by any means, at any time within the Charleston Federal Courthouse or J. Waties Waring Judicial Center.

10. Trial Courtroom

- a. Attendees in the trial courtroom may not converse or make gestures or sounds that are disruptive to the proceedings or that distract jurors or witnesses. Attendees in the trial courtroom should remain seated until the Court recesses.
- b. No one observing the trial proceedings in the trial courtroom or any overflow location may wear or carry any clothing, buttons, or other items that carry any message or symbol addressing the issues related to this case that may be or become visible to the jury.
- c. No food or beverage is permitted in the courtroom, except that counsel, jurors, court staff, and witnesses on the witness stand may have water.
- d. There are approximately eighty (80) seats available for the general public in Courtroom 6. Approximately half of the seats will be allocated for victims or victims' families. Additional seats will be allocated for Defendant's family, and for media and sketch artists.<sup>4</sup> The remaining seats will be available to the general public on a first-come, first-serve basis.

- e. The trial courtroom will open one (1) hour prior to the commencement of proceedings for the day. To retain their allocated seat, members of the media and other attendees with allocated seating must be seated fifteen (15) minutes prior to the commencement of proceedings for the day. Starting fifteen (15) minutes prior to the commencement of proceedings each day, the general public will be allowed to take any open seat on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- f. Those seated in the primary courtroom at the beginning of the day will be given a courtroom admission pass, good for that day. This pass must be presented to a Court Security Officer to gain reentry to the courtroom.

11. Overflow Location for the Public

- a. Overflow seating will be available for the general public in Courtroom 4. A live audio and video feed from the trial will be provided. A court-controlled closed-circuit video camera will be fixed on the witnesses, counsel, and the Court, and will not focus on the jury. Unless otherwise ordered, seating in the overflow courtroom is on a first-come, first-serve basis.

- b. A Court Security Officer or other Court staff shall be present in the overflow courtroom at all times when the Court is in session to enforce decorum and ensure compliance with this Court's orders.
- c. No food or beverage, except water for on-duty court staff, is permitted in the overflow courtroom.
- d. The overflow courtroom will open one (1) hour prior to the commencement of proceedings for the day.

12. Media Room

- a. Overflow seating will be available for the media in Courtroom 5 ("Media Room"). A live audio and video feed from the trial will be provided while court is in session. A court-controlled closed-circuit video camera will be fixed on the witnesses, counsel, and the Court, and will not focus on the jury. Only credentialed members of the media are permitted to enter the Media Room. Unless otherwise directed by the Clerk's Office, seating in the Media Room is on a first-come, first-serve basis.
- b. A Court Security Officer and/or other Court staff shall be present in the Media Room at all times when the Court is in session to enforce decorum and ensure compliance with this Court's orders.
- c. No food or beverage, except water for on-duty court staff, is permitted in the Media Room.

- d. Credentialed members of the media may bring electronic devices into the Media Room and use such devices in the Media Room, to write and transmit written content and to make telephone calls. However, no member of the media shall take any photograph, make any recording, or make any broadcast by any means, at any time in the Media Room or anywhere else within the Charleston Federal Courthouse or J. Waties Waring Judicial Center.<sup>5</sup> Any violation of this prohibition may result in the banning of all laptops or recording devices or the closing of the Media Room for the duration of trial. The Court may enter contempt sanctions against any violator and, if attending in the capacity of an employee or agent, against the employer or principal.
- e. The Court will not provide internet access in the Media Room. However, members of the media may bring their own internet access devices, such as Wi-Fi cards and hotspot devices.
- f. Unless otherwise ordered, the Media Room will open one (1) hour prior to the commencement of proceedings for the day and close at 6:00 P.M. each day.

Jurors

13. The names of jurors or prospective jurors shall not be revealed to the public or media in any fashion or form during the course of these proceedings. Any public references to the jurors or prospective jurors, including references in the courtroom, shall be by juror number only.
14. The Court will not permit any depictions or identification of individual jurors or prospective jurors at any time during the course of the proceedings in any manner including, but not limited to, photographs, videos, or identifying artistic renderings by sketch artists or any other individuals.
15. Any attempt to contact jurors or prospective jurors or any attempt to interact with jurors or prospective jurors in any way is strictly prohibited during the jury selection process and trial of this matter. Conversations, interviews, written communications, and any other communication or attempted communication with prospective jurors or selected jurors, including alternates, before they have been discharged by the Court are strictly prohibited.
16. When the jury has been discharged after its final verdict, any juror may consent to be interviewed by the media or other persons. Jurors are not obligated to discuss this case with anyone at the trial's conclusion, and once a juror indicates his or her desire not to discuss the trial, there should be no further attempts to contact that juror.

Other Provisions

17. To assist with overall security and general public access to the courthouse, the Court has designated the Federal Courthouse Garden on Meeting Street for media use throughout the trial. This is the only area where press conferences, interviews, still pictures, and film coverage can be activated and conducted on courthouse grounds. During the week of September 26, 2016, and during trial in this matter, the Federal Courthouse Garden will open when the courthouse opens and will be closed at 7:00 P.M. Court security will lock all gates to the Federal Courthouse Garden promptly at 7:00 P.M. Therefore, all persons must exit and all equipment must be removed from the Federal Courthouse Garden prior to 7:00 P.M. Any violation of this rule by any person may result in exclusion from the Federal Courthouse Garden, revocation of media credentials and media coverage privileges, or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court.
18. For safety reasons, no individual may block and no activity may take place at any point of ingress or egress to the courthouse itself.
19. As needed, updates to the media and public will be made on the District website. Any media inquiries should be directed to media@scd.uscourts.gov or 843-579-2679.
20. The United States Marshal, his Deputies, and Court Security Officers shall be responsible for maintaining order and decorum in the courthouse. All orders given by the Marshal, his Deputies, and Court Security Officers shall be deemed orders of this Court and must be complied with promptly. Failure by any person to do so may subject such person to sanctions by the Court, including, but not limited to, exclusion from the trial courtroom or the courthouse.

21. This Order may be modified or amended at any time by the Court without notice.
22. Any violation of any portion of this Order by any person may result in exclusion from the trial courtroom or the courthouse, revocation of media credentials and media coverage privileges, or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
